

Job Description

Job Title: Employment Specialist

Reports to: Senior Employment Adviser

Location: London - Hackney

Purpose

Working within East London NHS Trust's Recovery Teams, to support people who have experienced mental health problems to gain competitive paid employment.

To work directly with employers to secure employment opportunities, and subsequently to provide ongoing support according to both the employee's and the employer's needs

To hold specific responsibility and autonomy for the delivering of contract performance targets within an allocated Recovery Team

To promote contracted services, the Individual Placement and Support model and Shaw Trust to external agencies and the wider community

You're the person who can help people access the right job for them at the right time with the right support built around them, all key elements in transforming the lives of people with severe and enduring mental health conditions.

Working daily with clients, health professionals, volunteers and service providers; Employment Specialists are focused on making sure a person's journey into employment, with associated improved social inclusion and well-being, is as easy as possible.

Our Employment Specialists will need to understand the needs of project clients and employers and work creatively and sympathetically to make appropriate client/employer matches. Support will continue through a programme of in work support led by the Employment Specialist and continuing to address the needs of client and employer for up to a year.

As an Employment Specialist, you will need to be an able communicator, passionate about getting it right and focused on transforming individual lives through sustainable solutions.

You will work with people on their individual employment journey from initial assessment to the point where they no longer require face to face in work support. Key milestones on a typical journey are: initial assessment; vocational profiling, action planning; review and progress measurement; job brokerage, working on a one to one basis with employers to match people with appropriate employment; planning, providing and coordinating support whilst in employment; managing withdrawal of support as the in work support period comes to an end.

This role is perfect for individuals who have experience either in the employment advice field or as practitioners within a community mental health and/or wellbeing setting, but who are open to additional training and support where required. In all cases, a practical understanding of secondary care, coupled with the ability to champion and embrace change would be helpful. The successful candidate will have a solution focussed approach, be highly organised and be able to deliver to agreed service specifications and outcomes.

Main Duties and Responsibilities

1. To maintain and support a caseload of individual clients from Secondary Care mental health teams, providing assessment to address need, action planning to address barriers to employment and ongoing support to improve employability pre- and post-employment.
2. To engage effectively with employers to identify appropriate employment opportunities for people
3. To support individual production of CVs and application forms and co-ordinate and deliver preparatory activity to support clients into work, e.g. delivery of interview technique training and advice and guidance around welfare benefits and disclosure.
4. To develop and provide vocational guidance to people, assisting with identifying their key strengths and appropriate career direction.
5. To work with employers to promote the service, identify job opportunities and ensure appropriate strategies are in place to reduce barriers in the workplace.
6. To provide a quality service by conducting regular visits, effective monitoring, evaluation support and guidance to clients and employers.
7. To assist with job retention support through the delivery and coordination of on-going in-work support.
8. To liaise effectively within the NHS Trust and with all appropriate partners.
9. To carry out effective and efficient procedures, producing appropriate records/reports as required.
10. To maintain awareness of employment and disability issues.
11. To promote and market the Individual Placement and Support Employment Service within the secondary care mental health teams ensuring that all patients get the opportunity to receive support.
12. To attend Area, Regional and National meetings as required including secondary care mental health meetings.
13. To adhere to the Trust 's policies and procedures.
14. To promote and market the Trust as directed.

This job description is intended to provide a broad outline of the main duties and responsibilities only. The post holder will need to be flexible in developing the role in conjunction with the line manager. The post holder may be asked to carry out any other delegated duty or task that is in line with their post.

Other

1. To undertake any further training as identified in the Shaw Trust review procedures.
2. Ensure that safe working practices are followed in respect of COSHH and other Risk Assessment control measures.
3. Employees must comply with the provisions of 'The Health and Safety at Work Act 1974' and must take reasonable care for the health and safety of themselves and of other persons who may be affected by their acts of omissions whilst at work. Employees are also required to co-operate with their employer to enable them to perform or comply with any statutory provisions. The Trust's efforts to promote a safe and healthy working environment can only succeed with the full co-operation of its employees.
4. To understand, comply with and promote Shaw Trust's safeguarding policy and procedures. It is the responsibility of all employees to make the working environment safe and secure for all. Everyone must adhere to the 5 Rs in relation to possible abuse: Recognition, Response, Reporting, Recording and Referral. The Trust can only ensure its dedication to the protection of vulnerable people with the full cooperation of its employees.
5. The Trust has a Diversity and Inclusion Policy and it is the responsibility of all staff to comply with this. The key responsibilities for staff under this Policy are set out in the Trust Code of Conduct.
6. To maintain the confidentiality about clients, staff and other Trust business. The work is of a confidential nature and information gained must not be communicated to other persons except in the recognised course of duty. The post holder must meet the requirements of the Data Protection Act at all times.
7. To maintain awareness of risk and to take personal responsibility for ensuring that the Trust is not unnecessarily exposed to risk. To report any issues or concerns relating to risk and the effectiveness of the Trust's risk management arrangements.
8. Be aware of, promote and implement Shaw Trust's Risk, Quality and Information Security Management Systems.
9. To report to line manager, or other appropriate person, in the event of awareness of bad practice.
10. Recycle and manage energy within your environment in line with Shaw Trust's Strategic aim to adopt green approaches and become carbon neutral.
